RED CROSS MONTH

The month of March is Red Cross Month—a month in which to help a grand organization devoted to helping humanity.

During March the Red Cross will seek to raise 200 million dollars which is its 1944 minimum war-time need. This amount is greater than last year because the need is much greater.

With the full support from both individuals and business which the Red Cross so richly deserves, there can be little doubt that the goal will be achieved. Retailers, both chain and independent, are planning to increase their donations in keeping with the increased need, and they also plan to display posters and do whatever else is possible to make the drive a success.

This cooperation by the retailers is but one example of the spirit that can be expected the nation over in backing the Red Cross drive.

It requires no recitation on our part of the many activities carried on by the Red Cross to make every one of us realize his responsibility in giving all he can in support of it. Let us not wait until we are asked—let us give sponstaneously—generously.

Help the Red Cross to help those in need.

CHOOSE YOUR GOVERNMENT NOW

Fifteen states have endorsed the proposal to limit by Constitutional amendment the peacetime taxing power of the Federal government to 25 per cent on incomes, gifts, and inheritances. This issue is not merely one of taxes. The people of this country must decide what kind of government they will have after the war.

Robert B. Dresser stated the issue clearly when he said: "Necessarily involved in this controversy as to taxes is the question of whether our system of free enterprise is to be replaced by national socialism. Under free enterprise the capital required to provide jobs is furnished by the individual, and ownership of the business is in him. Under socialism the capital is furnished by the government, and it becomes the owner."

There is only so much capital in the nation. If the taxing policies of government result in government absorption of private capital, the nation automatically becomes socialistic. This country is headed that way. American Federation of Labor spokesmen observed in 1940: "As labor and industry survey what has happened to labor and industry in those lands where all powers have been concentrated in the central authority, they fear and oppose the steps which thus far have been taken here, to enlarge the dominion of the Federal government over the lives and fortunes of the American people."

Since 1940, momentum toward the socialized state in America has increased—wholly apart from the war emergency.

Free Courses

Free courses are now being given covering the operation of the metal lathe, metal shaper, milling machine, drill press and metal planer for men and women under the auspices of the San Francisco School department, Adult Education program. One may progress according to his ability with individual instruction given by a highly trained tool and die maker.

These classes are being held Tuesdays and Thursdays from 7 to 9:15 p. m. at the Polytechnic Evening high school, opposite the Kezar stadium. The school is easily reached by taking the "N," "7" or "17" cars.

Not everybody with a dollar to spare can shoot a gun straight—but everybody can shoot straight to the bank and buy War Bonds. Buy your 10% every pay day.

Good health, you know, is now a patriotic duty. So, go see a competent Physician—and, naturally, you'll want to bring his prescription here for careful and Reliable compounding.

Congressman Anderson Writes Home

JOHN Z. ANDERSON
Congress of the United States
House of Representatives
Washington, D. C.

February 28, 1944

To My Friends In The Eighth Congressional District:

Our forefathers in drafting the Constitution, wisely provided that every two years our Congressman should come before the people to give an account of his stewardship in national government. Then we examine his record, and express ourselves accordingly. No public official stands closer to the people, and none must account for his service more often.

Therefore the time has come again for me to stand for re-election to Congress, and again I find the press of national business precludes my coming home to campaign. I believe you will agree I should not desert my post in these momentous times to engage in politics.

Since Pearl Harbor Congress has been in almost continuous session, and I have been privileged as a member of the Naval Affairs Committee, to take an unusually active part in our war program, and to have first-hand information upon its conduct. Much of this information, together with that concerning other national affairs, I have passed on to you in my monthly radio talks, and through the courtesy of the press.

We ARE winning this war, but we must realize we have a long and difficult road ahead. Victory WILL be ours, because we fight in the cause of freedom and justice for all people. Perhaps, the greatest task will be the writing of such a peace as will insure security and happiness for our children for generations to come.

With my return to Congress you may be assured of the same full measure of devotion to our nation's well-being, and to your interests. I pride myself upon fair and impartial representation for all of you. To achieve this, it has been necessary for me to turn a deaf ear to pressure groups with selfish proposals, but this shall continue to be my policy.

Because I cannot return to enjoy greeting all my friends and neighbors personally, I must rely upon you to carry on for me, if I am to continue as your representative here. For nearly six years it has been my honor to serve you through some history-making times, an honor that I cherish, and hope will continue. With my future in your hands, I look forward to the vital days ahead with confidence and courage.

My kindest personal regards to all of you.

Sincerely,
Jack Anderson

SAFEWAY Homemakers' Guide

Compare SAFEWAY'S LOW PRICES—

Compare prices? Why, yes—it's a good old-fashioned custom which can mean the difference between having enough fine food for your family, and having not quite enough! Here at Safeway, you'll find prices consistently low. Low enough to make up that difference week in and week out. Make the test! Save at Safeway!

Uncle Sam set the point value on these fine foods . . .

BUT—Safeway set the cash prices! Never over the ceiling price, of course, and surprisingly often well below it. The regular Safeway customer saves money every week in the year!

READING & WRITING

BY Edwin Seaver AND Robin McKown

One weekend back in the age of automobile pleasure trips, the writer Anya Seton and her husband went for a drive up the Hudson River Valley region. It was on this trip that an old manor, alleged to be haunted, was pointed out to her.

ANYA SETON

She made other visits to this region after that and became increasingly interested in the life that flourished along the river a hundred years ago. Out of her research has come her exciting novel, "Dragonwyck," about a haunted house and the people who lived in it.

The story concerns Nicholas Van Ryn, who ruled estates of Dragonwyck in a system of medieval feudalism; of Joanna, his fat and food-loving wife, and her mysterious death; and Miranda, the golden-haired romantic young girl who unwittingly becomes involved in the sinister fortunes of the great house. Among the personages who play an incidental part in this story are a tortured young poet named Edgar Allan Poe, a sailor, Herman Melville, whose powerful first novel, "Typee" causes such a stir in literary circles, Mr. P. T. Barnum and Tom Thumb, and Martin Van Buren.

Anya Seton is the daughter of Ernest Thompson Seton, who many years ago won over the youth of America with his stories of animals and wildlife. "Dragonwyck" appeared originally in the Ladies Home Journal and is on the way to becoming a major film.

The Book-of-the-Month Club announces as its April selection, "Blessed Are The Meek," a novel of the time of St. Francis, by the noted Polish author, Zofia Kossak. "Blessed Are The Meek" will be published by Roy Publishers, formerly one of the leading publishers of Poland, now established in the United States.

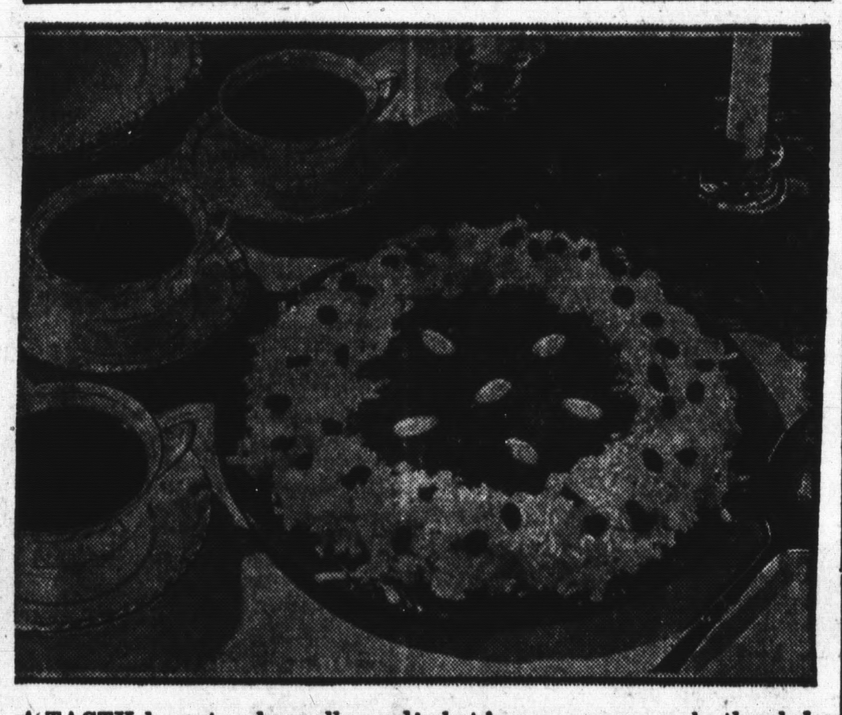
Jesse Stuart reports that one-fourth of the entire population of his home town—Greenup, Kentucky—is reading his novel, "Taps For Private Tussie." Greenup's population is 1,125. "The old men back in the hills are having their glasses refitted so they can read my book," writes Jesse. "Many of them can't read a chapter in a — / they read so slowly. Yet they are reading it."

Two Grand Top-Offs



A TASTY dessert and a really good cup of coffee make the perfect climax for any meal. And when that meal is a ration-scant one, the right dessert makes it seem much more satisfying. Have enough coffee for a cup with the main course, as well as with the dessert, for the addition of coffee will help mightily toward making up for any shortcomings there may be. Of course, you will want that coffee to be the very best. One way to achieve this is to use plenty of coffee and to make the full amount your coffee-maker calls for.

Rice Ring with Coffee Cream is an inexpensive and tasty dessert. It's the Coffee Cream that does the trick. And now that there is plenty of coffee available, you can use this delicious flavoring to add interest to many of your favorite desserts. This Rice Ring is not only inexpensive, it requires no ration points either. And what is more you can make the whole thing in practically no time. The entire family is sure to like this new way of serving a rice dessert. Here is the recipe. Of course, it's tested.

Rice Ring with Coffee Cream

½ cup sugar
4 tablespoons flour
¼ teaspoon salt
1 cup cold strong coffee
1 cup milk
½ teaspoon vanilla
1 cup rice, boiled or steamed
2 tablespoons raisins
Halved almonds

Mix sugar, flour and salt in top of double boiler. Stir in coffee and when well blended, add milk. Stir over hot water until mixture is smooth and begins to thicken. Cover and let cook 5 minutes. Add vanilla. Arrange rice in ring around serving plate and fill center with coffee cream. Garnish rice with raisins which have been scalded in water and drained, and garnish cream with halved almonds if desired. Serve hot. Yield: 6 servings.

"Date Conscious"? You'd Better Be--

Here is a list of those ration dates, which make calendar-watchers of all local housewives, motorists, or, in fact, anyone who wishes to eat, drive his car, or buy an occasional pair of shoes.

October 31—shoe stamp 18 (in War Ration Book One) was to have expired but OPA extends expiration date indefinitely.

November 1—Book Three "airplane" series stamp No. 1 became valid; good for one pair of shoes until further notice.

January 16—sugar stamp No. 30 in War Ration Book Four became valid and will be good for buying 5 pounds of sugar through the end of March.

January 22—A gasoline coupons became valid, good through March 21.

February 1—green stamps K, L, M, good for purchase of processed foods became valid, will be good through March 20 (Book Four).

February 18, 1944—brown stamps Y became valid to use in purchase of meats, etc. (Book Three).

February 20, 1944—brown stamps Z became valid (Book Three).

February 27—began use of red and blue rationing tokens for change.

February 27 — blue stamps A8, B8, C8, D8, E8 (Book Four) to be used with ration tokens came into use for processed foods.

February 27 — red stamps, A8, B8, C8 (10 point value each) in Book Four became valid, good through May 20 for meats, fats, cheese, butter.

February 29—was deadline for inspection of tires for B and C gasoline book holders.

March 12—red stamps D8, E8, F8 (Book Four) become valid for purchase of meats, oils and fats.

March 15—deadline for filing income tax returns; earlier filing is desirable.

March 20, 1944—brown stamps Y and Z (Book Three) expire.

March 20—green stamps K, L, M, Book Four, for processed foods, expire.

March 21—gasoline coupons A No. 10 expire.

March 31, 1944 — deadline for inspection of tires for A book holders.

March 31—sugar stamp No. 30 for 5 pounds of sugar expires March 31.

April 1—blue stamps F8, G8, H8, J8, K8 become valid for purchase of processed foods; good until June 20.

May 20—blue stamps A8, B8, C8, D8, E8 for processed foods (Book Four) expire.

May 20—red stamps A8, B8, C8, D8, E8, F8 for meats, oils and fats (Book Four) expire.

June 20—blue stamps F8, G8, H8, J8, K8 for processed foods Book Four) expire.

30 DAYS' NOTICE ON STAMP 18

The public will be given 30 days' notice, should it become necessary to terminate Shoe Ration Stamp 18. This announcement was made recently by OPA to "kill" scare-buying rumors that the validity period of Stamp 18 might be cancelled with only 24 hours' notice to consumers.

BROWN POINTS FOR WASTE FATS

For every pound of fat a housewife turns in to her meat dealer or other fat salvager, she receives two meat points. "But most important," Herbert M. Faust, director of WPB's Salvage division said, "within a month the fat will be transformed into war materials and on the way to the fighting fronts." He reminded housewives to save the grease from turkeys, geese, ducks, and chickens, for the manufacture of war products.

CANNING SUGAR NOW AVAILABLE

Housewives may now get 5 pounds of canning sugar by using Stamp No. 40 in War Ration Book Four, OPA has announced, and additional canning sugar later will be available on application to local boards. Stamp No. 40 will be good 13 months, through February 28, 1945.
